

Monday 21 November 2022
Time	Number	Topic	Presenter
07:00 - 08:00	REGISTRATION DAY 1
08:00 - 08:10		Welcome, SAPOS and STEPS	Dr Pieter Maré, Karen Moss
08:10 - 08:30		Welcome by Western Cape Department of Health	Dr Keith Cloete, South Africa
09:30 - 13:00	Session 1: Clubfoot care: developing world challenges (Chairs: Prof Robert Golele, Dr Pieter Maré)
08:30 - 9:00	KN1	Keynote lecture: The Indian clubfoot experience – Paving the way	Dr Mathew Varghese, India
9:00 - 9:30	KN2	Keynote lecture: The Ponseti Method in Brazil: how an education program based on mentorship and reference clinics involved all Latinoamerica	Dr Monica Nogueira, Brazil
9:30 - 10:00	IC1	Instructional course lecture: Remote Ponseti management via outreach clinics	Dr Kobus Smit, South Africa
10:00 - 11:00	FP1	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Establishing a clubfoot treatment programme in Gaza - Palestine 2. Congenital clubfoot in the poverty-stricken areas of Nairobi: Early treatment to tackle a major cause of childhood physical disability 3. The Case of Ethiopia: A review of the National Clubfoot Programme 4. Establishing a national clubfoot program through implementing partners in a developing country 5. Assessment of Club Foot Services in Pakistan: A Survey 6. Factors that negatively affect the impact of clubfoot treatment programmes in resource restricted settings 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Saeda Albarawi, Palestine 2. Dr Antonio Melotto, Kenya 3. Endashaw Abera, Ethiopia 4. Dr Faïçal Oubda, Burkina Faso 5. Dr Gul Zaman, Pakistan 6. Bindi Saffa, Sierra Leone
11:00 - 11:30	TEA / COFFEE
11:30 - 12:00	IC2	Instructional course lecture: The partnership between government, clinicians and NPOs in clubfoot	Prof Jacques du Toit, South Africa
12:00 - 13:00	FP2	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Assessment of the effectiveness of an intensive six month Clubfoot mentoring program 2. Before and after partnering with a clubfoot support organisation 3. Prioritising rehabilitation in health systems to support functioning from birth 4. The Ethiopian Clubfoot Experience 5. Factors that enable or impede provision of good quality care and parents challenges in adhering to treatment 6. Review of recurrent clubfoot in Ethiopia 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Dr Mohammed Sabounji, Senegal 2. Rawan Osman, Sudan 3. Dr Tracey Smythe, UK 4. Dr Ayana Birhanu, Ethiopia 5. Esperance Uwizeye, Rwanda 6. Dr Ayana Birhanu, Ethiopia
13:00 - 14:00	LUNCH
14:00 - 18:00	Session 2: Newborn idiopathic clubfoot treatment plan: innovate and adapt (Chairs: Dr Mark Eltringham, Dr Mari Thiert)
14:00 - 14:30	KN3	Keynote lecture: The role of the physiotherapist in clubfoot care	Denise Watson-Tann, UK
14:30 - 15:00	IC3	Instructional course lecture: Early results of accelerated vs. conventional Ponseti Method in the treatment of idiopathic clubfoot	Dr Isidor Ngayomela, Tanzania
15:00 - 15:30	KN4	Keynote Lecture: The Patient-Centred approach to birth defects	Dr Helen Malherbe, South Africa
15:30 - 16:00	IC4	Instructional course lecture: Barriers to Clubfoot Treatment Adherence - A case-control study	Dr Isidor Ngayomela, Tanzania
16:00 - 16:30	TEA / COFFEE
16:30 - 17:00	IC5	Instructional course lecture: Ponseti Clubfoot Navigator – An Electronic Medical Record App with AI to Reduce Error in Ponseti Clubfoot Treatment	Dr Shafique Pirani, Canada*
17:00 - 18:00	FP3	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ultrasonographic evaluation of Congenital clubfoot correction by Ponseti method 2. Ponseti treatment of bilateral idiopathic clubfoot: Does the hand dominance of the provider make a difference? 3. The rate of non-adherence in the Ponseti clubfoot clinic at Dr George Mukhari Academic hospital 4. The effect of patient default in the bracing phase on recurrence and poor foot functionality 5. Experience with Ponseti treatment and Achilles tenotomy in the treatment of clubfoot at Federal Medical Center, Owerri 6. Evaluating the Dynamic Cunningham clubfoot brace in Kenya 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Dr Ifechi Obioha*, Nigeria 2. Dr Chukwuka Udemezue, Nigeria 3. Dr Khetani Solly Bila, South Africa 4. Dr Henry Musoke, Uganda 5. Dr Ifechi Obioha*, Nigeria 6. Victoria Kimathi, Kenya
18:30 - 20:30	CONFERENCE SOCIAL FUNCTION		